

Towards Global Transformation

Proceedings of the Third International Conference on Gross National Happiness

The Centre for Bhutan Studies

Copyright © The Centre for Bhutan Studies, 2008

First Published 2008

ISBN 99936 14 42 4

The Centre for Bhutan Studies
Post Box No. 1111
Thimphu, Bhutan
Phone: 975 2 321005, 321111
Fax: 975 2 321001
e-mail: cbs@druknet.bt

www.bhutanstudies.org.bt

Contents

Acknowledgements		vii
Activating Difference: Appreciating Equity in an Era of Global Interdependence	Peter D. Hershock	1
Pretty Woman	Dasho Kinley Dorji	10
Happiness and Spirituality	Gem Dorji	26
Reciprocal Exchange and Community Vitality: The Case of Gortshom Village in Eastern Bhutan	Sonam Kinga	31
Is National Environment Conservation Success a Rural Failure? The Other Side of Bhutan's Conservation Story	Dorji Penjore	66
Opening the Gates in Bhutan: Media Gatekeepers and the Agenda of Change	Siok Sian Pek-Dorji	88
Conglomerate Radar of Happiness in Bhutan	Prabhat K Pankaj	110
A case story from Minamata: GNH Practice as Human Security and Sustainable Development	Takayoshi Kusago	130
The Suicide Priests of Japan and the Search for Gross National Happiness	Jonathan Watts	135
Gross National Happiness: A New Paradigm	Chandima D. Daskon	167
Beyond the Linear Logic of Project Aid Alternative: Understandings of Participation and Community Vitality	Amanda Kiessel	183
Creating Vibrant Communities through Ecologically Sound Food Production	Alex Kaufman	199
Happiness Under Pressure: How Dual-Earner Parents Experience Time in Australia	Peter Brown, Ester Cerin and Penny Warner-Smith	213
P2P and Human Happiness	Michel Bauwens	233
Microfinance in improvement of living standard	Saugata

and GNH	Bandyopadhyay	248
Microfinance Institution, Social Capital and Peace Building: Evidence from West Kalimantan, Indonesia	Rochman Achwan	272
Interpreting Right Livelihood: Understanding and Practice in Contemporary Thailand	Nissara Horayangura	282
A Tale of Two Samut Cities: Different Paths to Development and People's Wellbeing in Samut Sakorn and Samut Songkram Provinces	Decharut Sukkumnoed and Wipawa Chuenchit	300
The Development of Thai Mental Health Indicator: From Past to Present	Apichai Mongkol, Tavee Tangseree, Pichet Udomratn, Watchanee Huttapanom and Worawan Chutha	315
The Concept of Happiness: The Bridge between Western and Eastern Thought, and Empirical Evidence of Bangkokian's Happiness Determinants	Kanokporn Nitnitiphrut	326
Macroeconomic Determinants of the Happiness of the Poor: A Case Study of Pakistan	Muhammad Shahbaz and Naveed Aamir	367
The conference photographs

Acknowledgements

The Centre for Bhutan Studies would like to thank all individuals who were involved in organising and supporting the Third International Conference on Gross National Happiness (GNH). The conference, held in Thailand from 22 to 28 November 2007, was attended by about six hundred participants from academia, NGOs, governments, media, and religious institutions.

Ms Wallapa van Willenswaard and Mr Hans van Willenswaard of Suan Nguen Mee Ma Co Limited were the main organizers. Had it not been for their tireless effort, the conference would not have taken place in Thailand.

The conference co-organiser as well as sponsor, Ministry of Social Development and Human Security, the Royal Government of Thailand, deserve our special thanks. Mr Sulak Sivaraksa, founder and director of the Thai NGO “Sathirakoses-Nagapradeepa Foundation” played no lesser role in the conference.

The Centre would like to put on record the continuous financial support of UNDP, Bhutan. We want to thank Resident Representative Mr Nicolas Rossellini and his deputy Mr Toshihiro Tanaka for financing the GNH national survey and the development of GNH indicators. As in the past, UNDP also supported the participation of the Bhutanese delegation to the conference.

We wish to acknowledge the support of UNICEF and Save the Children Federation (USA) for participation of the Bhutanese youth delegates to the conference.

We would like to acknowledge various partners for assisting the conference co-organisers: Wongsanit Ashram; Spirit in Education Movement; TVS; NGO-COD; GPI Atlantic, Canada; Sewalanka, Sri Lanka; New Economics Foundation, U.K.; Oriones, France; Office of National Health Commission; Chulalongkorn University, Social Research Institute; Mahidol University, Contemplative Education Center; Assumption University (ABAC); Community Organizations Development Institute (CODI); Management and Psychology Institute; Social Venture Network; College of Social Management; Wongsanit Ashram; Thai Volunteers Service; Participatory Development Training Centre, PADETC, Laos; and partners from the Mekong Region.

Behind these institutes and organisations were a group of sponsors without whose assistance the conference would have been impossible: American Friends Service Committee, South East Asia (Quakers); Bangchak Petroleum; CODI; Heinrich Boell Foundation; Japan Foundation; Ministry of Social Development and Human Security; Niwano Peace Foundation; Thai Health Promotion Foundation; and the Bhutan offices of UNESCO and UNFPA.

Lastly, the Centre wishes to thank both national and international participants for their papers submitted to the conference (only a select few are included in this volume due to lack of space), and for further expanding the concept of Gross National Happiness as well as for helping to take steps towards grounding the concept into practice.